strations of Violence

New York — May Day eve was marked here by police raids on 10 meetings of Communists, Socialists, and alleged anarchists at which all the participants were driven into the street. Only two arrests were made during the day and those were young men handing out pamphlets of a reportedly inciting nature to school children.

The most important raid of the night was at the Manhattan headquarters of the Workers' Party of America, where all members, including classes of the Workers League and the Trade Union Educational League, were driven into the street, desks were broken open and literature confiscated.

CASTS SHADOW

Mexico City—May day demonstration of power by organized Mexican labor cast its shadow to such an extent that American ambassador Sheppard late Thursday night had not received the necessary permit for the operation of his automobile and announced that he and the embassy officials would walk from their homes to the embassy building.

The ambassador's chauffeur was notified by the syndicate of private chauffeurs that he would operate the car between 9 a. m. and 3 p. m. Friday only at his own risk, and no offer of military protection was forthcoming from the government.

DRIVERS STRIKE

Parks Parks' word its customary except that this May day morning except that there were no taxicabs on the streets due to the drivers' 24 hour abstention from labor.

The atmosphere of calm was expected to prevail throughout the day for the authorities had taken exceptional precautions, but there was an even more effective deterrent in the shape of rain, which had been falling steadily since 6 o'clock Thursday night and which the weather experts said would continue.

Besides the taxicab men, the building trades workers were the only group to proclaim a full cessation of work, but most of the metal workers were idle because of the calling of a number of plants to avoid possible trouble. Other unions contented themselves with merely inviting their members to celebrate the "feast of labor."

Home—May day was reported to be tranquil throughout Italy as a result of mobilization of police and Fascist militia in all large cities and thorough precautions by the authorities everywhere to prevent possible attempts at violence.

Raids of communist headquarters and arrests of suspects continued throughout the country.

In some of the larger industrial centers a few workmen took a holiday but started no disturbances according to reports up to Friday.

40 KILLED AS GERMAN TRAIN HURLES GRADE

Schneidemuhle, Prussia.—The Szydłkow-Berlin express was derailed early Friday morning in the Polish corridor between Swarzachin and Stargard, killing between 20 and 40 persons and injuring two score. The locomotive and most of the coaches were hurled down a steep grade and only one sleeping car and one coach remained on the track. The derailment is believed to have been due to the train speeding around a sharp curve.

The derailed train tore down the telephone wires, cutting off communication with Poland. The train was in charge of a Polish crew.

ARBITERS MEET TO FIND OUT WHO WON
"BATTLE" OF OAHU

Honolulu—Eight hundred army and navy officers representing expert opinion on United States defenses, assembled here Friday for round-table discussions to ascertain which forces—the Blue or Black—won the recently fought sham battle for possession of the Island of Oahu.

The assembly, officially termed as a "critique," was an executive one, open only to army and navy participants. Secrecy was maintained because of the fact that details of the landing of a constructive force of 40,000 marines at Haleiwa on the north coast of Oahu would be aired.

Details of this surprise landing by sea forces attempting to take the island are considered invaluable by military men, as the move is one which would give an enemy force control of the island and a dominating position on the Pacific coast from Alaska to the Panama canal.

COUNCIL MEETS C. C. TO DISCUSS OPENING OF ROAD

State Highway Commission Gets Protest Against Help for Neenah

Appleton's problem of gaining the cooperation of Winnebago in providing a south outlet for Cherry-st bridge in place of the temporary road will be discussed at a joint meeting in the city hall at 7:30 Friday evening of the street and bridge committee of the common council and the highway committee of the chamber of commerce.

Both the city and the chamber submitted resolutions to the state highway asking that state aid be denied Neenah and Menasha for rebuilding bridges within those cities unless they made convenient access to Cherry-st bridge possible. Letters received from the highway commission at Madison indicate that the resolutions have been received and they will be acted upon at the next meeting of that body.

CHECK FORGERS PLACED IN JAIL

Hearing for Mr. and Mrs. Leo F. Leech Set for May 9—Can't Furnish Bond

Mr. and Mrs. Leo F. Leech of Milwaukee were arraigned in municipal court before Judge A. M. Spencer Thursday afternoon following their arrest for check forgery. Their hearing was set for May 9 and they were placed in the county jail until unable to furnish bond of $1,000 each.

The couple was arrested Wednesday afternoon after a false check had been passed at Greenen Dry Goods Co. and another had been refused in payment for merchandise by the J. C. Penny Co. department store. Mrs. Leech is charged with issuing a false check and her husband with being an accomplice. A number of checks ready for presentation were found in their possession, together with a supply of blanks on various banks.

Judge Learns Lessons Of Life On 4,000 Mile Hike

Oakland, Calif.—Superior Judge Kinsell, 51 years young, returned to his home here Thursday with blisters hardened feet and a new perspective on life as the result of what he described as being a casual hike to St. Augustine, Fla., and return, a distance of 4,000 miles.

Judge Kinsell's family knew "his honor" was approaching home, but did not know just when to expect him. His advent became a matter of record when a Chinese cook was contacted by a sunburned person who demanded and obtained admittance after he identified himself.

Diamond Brothers and Farina Forgive and Ask Forgiveness Before Their Execution

By Associated Press

OSSINING, N. Y.—Morris Diamond and Joseph Diamond, brothers and John Farina, went to the electric chair at Sing Sing prison Thursday night for the murder in Brooklyn of two bank messengers in 1923.

Details of this surprise landing by sea forces attempting to take the island are considered invaluable by military men, as the move is one which would give an enemy force control of the island and a dominating position on the Pacific coast from Alaska to the Panama canal.

Joseph was led into the chamber after his brother's body had been removed. He showed no signs of strain and in a few words declared his innocence.

Outwardly calmest of them all John Farina came last, smoking a cigar and approaching the chair without the slightest show of fear, he threw the cigar to the floor and began to pray as he sat down, his only message was:

"I forgive everyone, and ask forgiveness in return."

At 12:40 o'clock Farina was pronounced dead and the triple execution was over. The 35 persons present were allowed to leave the room. Outside the gates of the prison a crowd was still gathered, held back by the guards thrown out when some 500 persons attempted to force their way into the prison earlier in the evening.

Farina left two affidavits with Warden Lawes, but they were not made public.

A fourth accomplice in the murders, Anthony Pantano, was again convicted on his third trial last week and sentenced to be electrocuted the week of June 8. The fifth man implicated, George Bessarot, who escaped to Italy, was arrested at Palermo a year and ten days after the murder, and is now waiting trial there.

By Associated Press

Milwaukee—The jury hearing the evidence in the case of Wendell Hoover, charged with murder in connection with the death of Mrs. Vera T. Bossard, will be given the case Friday afternoon, following the argument of attorneys and the charge by the court.

Hoover has built up an alibi, which was given additional strength late Thursday through the testimony of a police Lieutenant, Harry Ridemour, who said that Hoover had told the police that he had telephoned his wife about the time of the killing of Mrs. Bossard and then took a street car for his wife's home, in the same apartment building that the Bossard's occupied rooms. He got off the car, and returned to his rooms for a package which he forgot, he testified.

The couple was arrested Wednesday afternoon after a false check had been passed at Greenen Dry Goods Co. and another had been refused in payment for merchandise by the J. C. Penny Co. department store. Mrs. Leech is charged with issuing a false check and her husband with being an accomplice. Air Of Mystery Attends Culbertson Appointment As Minister To Roumania

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Copyright, 1925, by the Post Pub. Co., Washington, D. C. — There's some mystery of political mystery in the circumstances attending the appointment of Dr. W. S. Culbertson, of Kansas, to be American minister to Roumania.

For a long time Dr. Culbertson as a member of the tariff commission has been a thorn in the side of certain advocates of higher protective duties. For a long time he has voted with the Democratic minority although he is a progressive Republican. Also he has cherished a desire to go into diplomatic service.

When it was published a week ago that Dr. Culbertson was to be appointed minister to Roumania, the department of state let it be known that he was being considered for the post. Dr. Culbertson visited the White House. He was tendered the appointment and indicated his willingness to accept it.

In the usual course his name was sent to the Roumanian government for its approval and on Monday of last week there was an indication that Roumania would approve. On Tuesday the newspapermen visited the White House and were advised that there were no new developments with respect to Dr. Culbertson, that he had had an understanding with President Harding relative to a diplomatic post and that Mr. Coolidge was still trying to find a post acceptable to Dr. Culbertson.

Within three hours after this information was given to the press, an announcement was made at the White House that Dr. Culbertson had been appointed minister to Roumania. The mystery lies in the fact that the White House for reasons unexplained preferred to give the newspapermen the impression that a post acceptable to Dr. Culbertson had not yet been found when in fact he had been consulted and accepted the appointment several days before.

The substitute amendment by J. C. Thompson Jr., Oshkosh, to the assembly bill which was introduced simultaneously with the senate bill and which contained the same provisions as the original senate measure will be taken up at 10 o'clock next Tuesday morning as a special order of business. This arrangement was made with the agreement of progressives who sponsored the senate bill.

The fight centered on the new revision plan after efforts to repeal the grain and coal occupational tax offset to remove alleged discriminations had been defeated.

AMENDMENT REJECTED

The amendment by E. B. Miner, New Richmond, to the assembly bill of the senate income tax bill which was enacted in an amended form, seeking the occupational tax offset, was rejected 42 to 30.

Assemblyman Duncan, Milwaukee, offered an amendment making the assembly bill conform with the senate measure as the latter was finally enacted and adding the occupational tax repeal.

The Duncan amendment likewise was rejected, the vote being 54 to 3 and the house was placed under call by assembly Perry, Wauwatosa, conservative leader for the second time during the morning. Previously unsuccessful attempts had been made to lay the bill and the Duncan amendment over until next week.

In offering his proposal, Mr. Duncan contended that the Miner amendment did not correct the new law, as the author sought because the occupational tax repeal was already in the assembly bill. Conservatives voted against the Duncan amendment when the Miner proposal had been defeated.

FIREMEN SAVE FARM BUILDINGS

Chemicals Used at Frank
Mueller Farm Stop Flames
in Hatchery

Chemical tanks of the fire department saved buildings at the Frank Mueller farm, Mackville, from being consumed by a blaze which broke out in a chicken house about 11 o'clock Thursday morning.

An oil lamp in a brooder became overheated and set fire to the chicken house. Mrs. Mueller was alone in the house, which is about a half mile north of Appleton, and telephoned the fire department for help. One fireman reached the farm just as the flames were spreading to a corn crib. Chemicals were applied and the progress of the fire stopped.

The entire department was out at 3:35 Thursday afternoon to fight a fire which usually requires the presence of only one hose squad. Fire at the dump next to the gas plant on W. Water st. which has been smoldering for several days became enlivened and boys in the neighborhood turned out in alarm at 10:25, thinking a fire had started. All of the trucks responded and returned immediately with the exception of a hosecart. The rubber hose was wetted down thoroughly to prevent further trouble.

NAB KIDNAPPER WITH YOUNG GIRL IN BARN

Randolph, Vt.—Earl Woodward, farmhand and former convict, and Lucille Chatterton, 11-year-old girl he is alleged to have kidnapped, were captured in a barn on the Howes farm in Brookfield, at 6 o'clock Friday morning. They are being brought to this town.

From that time on he became a wayfarer. Judge Kinsell said he had learned many things in his jaunt, during which he shared his blanket, and food with fellow wayfarers. "I learned that the world is good and that the people in it are good," he said. "Life is good; life is kind; life is true."

TAX BATTLE CENTERS ON EXTRA TAX OFFSET

Thompson's Amendment to Restore Property Offset to Be Debated Tuesday

By Associated Press

Madison—Assembly conservatives Friday succeeded in reducing their fight on the recently enacted income tax revision plan to the issue of the Thompson amendment proposing additional changes in the law, including restoration of the personal property tax offset.

The substitute amendment by J. C. Thompson Jr., Oshkosh, to the assembly bill which was introduced simultaneously with the senate bill and which contained the same provisions as the original senate measure will be taken up at 10 o'clock next Tuesday morning as a special order of business. SIX BALLOONS TO TRY TO SET NEW RECORD IN RACE

Bags Are Equipped for Emergencies if They Are Marooned in Canadian Wilds

By Associated Press

St. Joseph, Mo.—With generally fair weather and with south or south-easterly winds predicted, six balloons will get underway late Friday in the national elimination balloon race to be witnessed by 90,000 persons. Officials are highly optimistic over the weather conditions and Carl H. Werner, governor-at-large of the National Aeromobile association and manager of the race, predicted that the American record of 1,148 miles would be broken.

Inflation of the big bags began early Friday morning and the first pilot by Major Smith, is expected to leave on his jaunt with the air currents at 5:30 p. m. The other balloons will follow at five minute intervals in the following order: Good year III—W. T. VanOrman, pilot; C. K. Wollam, aid; army balloon, Lieutenant W. J. Flood, pilot, Lieutenant H. McCormick, aide; St. Joseph, Captain H. E. Honeywell, pilot; H. E. Preston, aide; Detroit, Herbert V. Thaden, pilot; W. C. Maper, aide.

Three of the balloonists will be racing for grand prize on a charge of $2,000 for operating a confidence game. They are alleged to have obtained $120 by use of checks on Paul Mobley Novelties company.

Defense in National Bank
Case Will Put Plaintiff's
Attorney on Stand

Corroboration of testimony given by R. S. Powell regarding a proposal made by Attorney C. E. Carpenter, Chicago, that former intercede with the state railroad commission in behalf of Nick Simon, Jr., was made by Attorney J. H. McGilligan, Green Bay, who took the stand Thursday afternoon in the case of William Lombke vs. The First National bank, Mr. Powell and others. Mr. Carpenter is one of the attorneys representing the plaintiff who is seeking to recover from the bank money he invested in Simon Cheese company stock on alleged recommendations by bank officials.

Mr. McGilligan testified he was present at the conversation the bank president had with the Chicago attorney regarding the proposed intervention for Simon and heard Mr. Carpenter offer approximately $1,000 as a part of the bargain.

Following Mr. Powell's disclosure of the foregoing conversation, the Chicago attorney pursued a course of cross-examination seemingly intended to ridicule the witness. The latter was visibly nettled, and Attorney V. I. Minahan, Green Bay, representing the bank, objected to the cross-examination, declaring that he intended to put Mr. Carpenter on the stand latter. Judge Edgar V. Werner sustained the objection and barred the Chicago attorney from cross-examining the witness.

ASKED INTERVIEW
Attorney McGilligan, who declared on the witness stand that he was employed as counsel for the bank in the Zufelt case in Sheboygan, related how the aforementioned conversation and "offer" took place.

He said that the Chicago attorney had previously telephoned Mr. Powell asking for the interview, and when the three were together, Powell, McGilligan and Carpenter, at the bank, they engaged first in small talk. After Carpenter complimented Powell on being the head of such a large organization as the First National bank, McGilligan asked what all this was leading to. Carpenter asked the other attorney if he knew that a deposition of Nick Simon had been taken in Chicago, and the Green Bay attorney replied that he was waiting for a copy of the deposition.

Carpenter continued that some one in his office had taken down the testimony but that it was not yet transcribed, the witness said.

"I don't want that deposition reduced to type if it can be avoided, and I don't want you to do anything until we have had this business," until we have had this business," Mr. Carpenter is alleged to have said.

"What do you propose?" Mr. McGilligan said he asked him.

"I wish I could have brought that deposition for you to read and have you hear what Nick said about Powell," Carpenter is alleged to have said. "You know he's a desperate fellow and will say anything because he is in a trap. The federal and Wisconsin authorities will be investigating this, and it looks serious for Simon."

"I didn't think you were interested in Simon," was Mr. McGilligan's rejoinder.

OFFERED $1,000.

Carpenter advised them to be careful and intimated that Simon made damaging charges about Powell, the witness related. He said Carpenter offered to pay about $1,000, or it might have been 50 per cent of a $2,300 note due the bank from Mr. Zufelt. If the bank would intercede with the railroad commission at Madison and see to it that Simon wouldn't get anything more than a fine for his violation of the state "blue sky" law.

"I didn't think you were interested in Simon," Mr. McGilligan repeated.

"I want to appeal to your better selves," Mr. Carpenter is said to have continued. "You had better go slow. Consider that Simon is a young man, was just recently married and that he has a career before him. The idea of imprisonment won't get you anything, and you can save Powell from the disgrace of participating in fraudulent practices used on purchasers of Simon stock. The deposition should be destroyed."

"Yes, and that skunk (meaning Simon) will go ahead and do the same things over again once he is free," was Mr. McGilligan's comment, he testified.

The Chicago attorney offered to have another deposition taken that would clear the bank, Mr. McGilligan said. Here the conversation became somewhat heated when Mr. McGilligan grew indignant.

When Mr. Carpenter was asked whom he represented, he said, "Well I represent Simon in this; I want you to know that all I got for coming here is $200. "He spoke of this as being an inadmissible sum," the witness said.

NOTE HAD DEFECT

When Mr. Carpenter suggested a conference at Milwaukee or Fond du Lac between Mr. Powell, Mr. McGilligan, Mr. Carpenter and young Simon, Mr. McGilligan said he would talk first with J. P. Frank, the bank's attorney, before Carpenter would have his answer. Mr. Frank advised against any action, and the matter was dropped.

Mr. McGilligan under cross-examination by Attorney E. L. McIntire, Milwaukee, denied that he advised dropping the Zufelt case as a result of the conversation Carpenter had with Mr. Powell, and the attorney. Mr. J. P. Frank said it was on account of a "real defect in the Zufelt note." In the left-hand corner it is $1,300 in figures and farther down "note in twenty-three c's."

Another witness to testify Thursday was C. S. Johnson, president of the First National bank, and vice-president of the First National bank. He declared he did not know if he had commended the stock to anyone, but he had considered it good. He also said that he had no knowledge that Simon paper was "fake" paper.

To counteract charges made by Simon in incriminating testimony taken in a deposition in Leavenworth prison to refuse to answer certain questions, Attorney Minahan offered in evidence a statement of the clerk of the United States district court on the indictment of Simon on a charge of forging fictitious paper on the First National bank without its knowledge, a charge to which Simon pleaded guilty.

A deposition of Henry C. Kuehn, manager of the Wisconsin Cold Storage Co., Milwaukee, which stored much of Simon cheese, showed that a warehouse receipt issued by that firm to the S. Simon Cheese company had been falsified to indicate that 9,100 pounds instead of 1,100 pounds were in storage.

RED BUNK

Some of our viewers-with-alarm have been greatly exercised over a recent meeting of radicals in Madison Square Garden, New York, in which the presiding officer made this declaration: "Today we have a great international army of the working class, prepared for struggle, armed with a program, armed with organization, disciplined, determined, unified in every country of the world to work together for the great final triumph of the working class—the world revolution." This is big talk. It makes the reds, no doubt, swell their chests and feel important. And it is just plain bunk, as the ranting Reds themselves must know in their hearts even while they brag.

There is no such "great international army." There is no international program. No two nations have the same radical program, and even Russian bolshevism is forced to change its program from month to month, as it compromises with capitalism to continue in power.

"Organization," "discipline," "determination," these are brave words used by the Reds to keep up their courage. What has happened to the I. W. W. movement, the bolshevist movement, the socialist movement, in this country? Look at their party organizations—shot to pieces!

If radicals really convince themselves by such talk, the only other persons they seem to convince are the ultra-conservatives with ultra-jumpy nerves. The "great final triumph of the working classes" will come. But in this land, at least, it will not be what these fire-eaters imagine. From present indications it will be a capitalistic triumph—a triumph of wage-earners, by thrift, energy and intelligence buying into capitalism, acquiring financial and industrial power through ownership, until capital and labor can hardly be told from each other.

HOWE ABOUT WOMEN

E. W. Howe has found that equal suffrage, sovietism and the jazz-age are close relations. Says the Kansas sage: "A great many worthy people regard equal suffrage as a step forward. A good many others regard it as an experiment liable to prove as disastrous as sovietism in Russia. Sovietism and equal suffrage have been looked upon with suspicion a long time. Both have been tried and rejected after practical test. Equal suffrage means more than women voting. We never had bobbed hair until we had suffrage. Cigarette smoking was never general among women until the equal suffrage era. Drinking among women was not so common as to excite general comment until after equal suffrage was won. Millions of women regard equal suffrage as warrant for things the constitutional amendment said nothing about."

A great many people have long ruminated on the relation of votes-for-women, rolled stockings, boudoir smokes and "mixed" drinks and the causes for the same. But few besides the Kansas editor are so bold as to venture the guess (it can only be a guess) that equal suffrage is to blame for all alleged calamities which have befallen womanhood since the enactment of the nineteenth amendment. Others are more prone to believe that equal suffrage and the jazz-age have a common ancestor. In this complex society and revolutionary era it is difficult to put one's finger on exact causes and it is dangerous to one's reputed intelligence to offer suppositions as established truths.

And then, the girls and matronly ladies who roll their own, carry a flask and smoke gold-tips won't agree with E. W. Howe that equal suffrage has proven "as disastrous as sovietism" even if it was the seed of bobbed hair and smoking and drinking among daughters and mammas.

POST BOXES

Don't let the new postal rates worry you.

Pay the extra cent on picture post cards and be glad you don't live in Danzig.

Poland was granted rights under the treaty of Versailles to establish a post office in the Free City of Danzig. The Poles added 10 letter boxes scattered through the city. The boxes were painted in the Polish national colors.

During the night German sympathizers painted the boxes in the German national colors. Poland, insulted, sent a squad of airplanes over the city. Prussia massed troops. Meanwhile the League of Nations ruled that the Poles had overstepped their authority in erecting the 10 boxes. The case has been put to the world court for settlement, where league members hope the expense will fall heavy on the Poles as a chastisement.

All of which won't make international feeling in Europe any better.
All because of 10 post boxes.

TWO IDEAS

A visitor looking over real estate developments in a rapidly growing city the other day ran into a contrast in two neighboring allotments. One of them was laid out in the way customary therabouts, with small lots and straight, narrow streets and with the building restrictions low and rather lax. It was intended, as the company frankly admitted, for quick sale, and the manager prided himself on the rapidity with which the public was buying it. There was little provision for beauty, space and comfort. There was no assured protection of the neighborhood as a residence section. The allotment plan disregarded the future. The company professed no public responsibility.

The other allotment was laid out in winding streets, following the contour of the land, saving expensive grading while adding beauty. Trees, knolls, brooks and other natural attractions were preserved and worked into the scheme. The streets were wide, and many of them parked with lovely, permanent shrubbery and trees. The lots were liberal in size, the cost requirements for building rather high, the houses set well back from the street, business strictly segregated, all intrusion of unpleasant features carefully guarded against.

"The public will not buy such high-priced lots," said the manager of the first allotment. "People will pay only so much for a lot, and so much to build a house." "The public will rise to what is beautiful and sound," declared the manager of the second allotment. "People will have to be educated to it, but they will learn. There are far more people in this town, right now, who can afford to live in a section like that than the other fellows realize. And the number is rolling up fast. Take the typical owner of a typical little, old-fashioned home down town, on a typical little, old-fashioned street. As the town grows out and his property becomes valuable for business purposes, he sells at a fancy price, and wants something better. It is like starting with a Ford and going on to a bigger and better car. This is American progress. We are helping it along, creating value and improving the city. When they get out here, too, with beauty, space, fine air and a spirit of success around them, they feel so much better and bigger that they go ahead and make more money, and so can afford the more expensive place."

Here are two ideas that are fighting each other in every American city.

More than 60,000 tourists camped in Yellowstone Park last summer, which certainly is a lot of trash.

Our contention is a man should be at least 30 before he carries a cane and twice that before he wears spats.

Sawdust bricks are being sold for fuel. Well, it's fine wood.

Statistics show an ordinary pipe can be smoked in 15 minutes, if you don't run out of matches.

Very little is being done to save our forests, chiefly because of the log-rolling in Washington.

The number of autos in Tokyo is now 10,500. Wonder what the 500 are?

There are 6000 bee-keepers in the United States. We are thinking of getting a bee and grazing him.

Health Talks

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.
Noted Physician And Author

Dr. Brady will answer all signed letters pertaining to health. Writer's names are never printed. Only inquiries of general interest are answered in this column, but all letters will be answered by mail if written in ink and a stamped, self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Requests for diagnosis or treatment of individual cases cannot be considered. Address Dr. William Brady, in care of this paper.

CLAVUS

The title of today's talk I chose not so much to aid and abet crossword puzzle makers, but from impulse. The word clavus means a corn or callus, and a doctor just naturally seizes upon it name-like that to cover his general ignorance of the subject as much as possible. Clavus, by the way, is one disease which the former barber headers seldom treat by adjusting the victim's spine. Clavus in the shrewd eyes of the former barber healer looks very much as fracture looked to the author of another bad healing cult—the lality is still rather hard headed about these perfectly obvious ailments.

Before we go any farther I want to testify that I spelled callus as a noun in the preceding paragraph, no matter how it may be spelled here. As a general rule, it comes out spelled as an adjective.

All corns are caused by pressure and friction from improper footwear. When the pressure is made by an adjoining toe the corn is likely to be a soft corn, simply because the sweat between the toes keeps it moist.

Paring or cutting or scraping away corns is a dangerous practice in any case, unless it is done under strict aseptic conditions, which does not mean merely using antiseptics. It is probably better to remove a corn by softening it chemically, and the most satisfactory remedy for this purpose is salicylic acid. The standard formula is a solution of 30 grains of salicylic acid in half an ounce of flexible collodion. This must be kept in a tightly stoppered vial and care taken to keep the fluid off the neck of the vial and off the stopper. Otherwise the ether evaporates from the colloid, and there is left a thick mass which is useless until more ether is added to dissolve it again. Paint the corn or callus with one coat of the salicylic collodion every day for a week or longer. Keep the medicine off the surrounding skin. After several such applications the corn or callus will be so soft that it can be easily wiped away. Of course, it will return if the original cause is not removed.

For the soft corn the same treatment is sufficient, but special attention is necessary to prevent moisture. This may be done by keeping either pigtails of absorbent cotton or little folds of absorbent surgeon's gauze between the toes and changing these two or three times a day. If there is excessive sweating of the feet, that should be treated, too.

The present styles in shoes are about the best ever, from the hygienic point of view. Women's shoes this season allow for three or four toes to the foot, and some of the shoes for men will take five toes together and still leave room for half hose.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Tonsils and Voice.

Please tell me whether having the tonsils removed will injure the voice for singing. I have been told there is a lining back of the palate called pillars of the throat and if these are destroyed one can never sing high. Is there more danger of injury to the pillars if a local anesthetic is used, or is the result more satisfactory when a general anesthetic is used? (Mrs. H. J. N.)

Answer—If the tonsils are submerged or if there are adhesions between the tonsil and the pillar (the result of old inflammation or long neglected infection) there is some risk of injury to the pillar in the removal of the tonsil, whether local or general anesthesia is used. As a general rule removal of the tonsils improves the voice.

Boxing

Is boxing good for a girl? Will it be injurious in later years? A friend has volunteered to teach me. (A. C. J.)

Answer—I should not advise it for girls. Better go in for swimming, fencing, esthetic dancing, girls' basketball, hiking, tennis, skating or gymnasium class work. Every schoolboy, however, should be required to pass a proficiency test in boxing.

A celebration was held this morning at Lawrence college for W. S. Westcott, who won the oratorical contest of western schools at Denver, Colo.

All of the western paper mills making book paper including those of the Fox river valley, were to shut down for one week, commencing Monday. This action was taken due to an overstocked market.

The city council appointed a committee consisting of Rush Winslow, H. G. Freeman, H. W. Meyer, Alfred Galpin and John Conway to work with the special waterworks committee. These men were to employ a competent engineer to make any tests they deemed necessary for a water supply.

HARMONY AIM OF MAYOR, HE TELLS COUNCIL

City Officials Hear Address
by Dr. Kinsman at Annual Banquet

"City officials have an ungrateful task with much work and small remuneration, but city government is the backbone of the national organization," Dr. D. O. Kinsman said in an address to city officers and officials at their annual dinner in the vocational school Wednesday night. Dr. Kinsman said the world had been working on the problem of city government for more than 6,000 years, and that the aldermanic form had been introduced into France from England, and from France to America.

The aldermanic system is based upon the theory that there must be three departments for efficient government, each acting as a check upon the other." Professor Kinsman said. "These departments are the legislative, the executive, and the judicial, just as in the state and national governments. But in Wisconsin we have added another department—the administrative. Up to now no one has been able to discover the line of demarcation between the executive and administrative departments."

REAL EFFICIENCY

Professor Kinsman told his audience that complaints and accusations can not be avoided in any government, and praised the officials of Appleton for their efficient service. He said that the ideal government would be one that is as efficient that it would be able to give the taxpayer more than the value of his money in return for the tax levy, but doubted that this state of efficiency ever could be reached.

He spoke of the fact that every citizen has a word in the regulation of his city through his alderman, who is the direct representative of his constituents, theoretically. This system, however, has been criticized as the greatest and most perfect ring-around-the-rosy in existence, he continued. If a citizen goes to the city hall under this system of government, he is sent from one official to the other and back again, and no one knows where he can get the information he desires, according to these criticisms. Professor Kinsman went on. He told the officials and officers that he was not speaking of the Appleton government in particular, but of the general aldermanic system.

After Mr. Kinsman had concluded his talk, Mayor John Goodland, Jr., urged cooperation between all departments, and said that it would be his effort to maintain perfect accord between all offices. He said that he would be on hand in his office several hours each day to hear complaints and suggestions of citizens at large as well as of officials, and urged anyone with a grievance to come to him.

PUT GRAVEL SURFACE ON STATE ROUTE 151

State Highway 151, better known as the River to Neenah, is being improved by Winnebago-co highway commission to take care of heavy travel expected next summer. Highway 151 is a belt line around Neenah and Menasha and is expected to take some of the tourist traffic off Highway 15.

The road is being surfaced with gravel from the end of the concrete at the outskirts of Neenah to the Outagamie-co line, a distance of about three miles. The work is being done by the Winnebago-co highway commission.

Marrying Off Daughter Puts Dent In Dad's Purse

A daughter is always a luxury to father's way of thinking, and when she marries and the responsibility of keeping her clothed is shifted, he is considerably relieved. But the actual process of shifting is an expensive proposition, for daughter's wedding outfit isn't something that can be picked up on a bargain counter.

Of course, if she has everything made at home or by a dressmaker, and her outfit is to be most elaborate the expense may be exceedingly high, but to outfit the average bride for the short period when she promises to love honor and possibly obey, father may just as well know now as the first of the month following the wedding that his checking account will be minus at least a hundred dollars, if mother and daughter don't get extravagant ideas.

A bridal outfit of this type will include a dress priced at $45, a silk veil at $6, lingerie costing about $30, shoes at $10, stockings at $2.05 and white kid gloves at $8.95.

The dresses are mostly of georgette or chiffon over satin or silk, some elaborately made and beaded, while the majority are simply, but richly made. A dress at $45 is of good quality. Others may be obtained at prices all the way from $25 and up. Veils are priced at $4.50 to $6. Silk gloves at $1.59 and $1.89, kid gloves at $2.95 and $3.95, white kid shoes from $8 to $10, silver brocade shoes from $8 to $12, stockings from $1.55 up. Lingerie varies, according to quality and material.

A bride must have a traveling suit or dress, if she is to go on a wedding trip, and one of the ensemble suits that are so popular may be bought for $30 or more.

Constipation exacts a telling price. Its hideous poisons lead to over forty devastating diseases. But let Mrs. Rench, of Iowa, tell her story:

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is the very best I ever used for chronic constipation. I have used all kinds of medicine and nothing helped me like ALL-BRAN. It has such a nice flavor and it is cheaper than pastes out hundreds of dollars seeking relief.

UNCLE SAM FINDS WAY TO MAKE MAIL PROFIT

New difficulties have arisen through the change in postal rates that went into effect on April 15, this time from the fact that mail patrons who send packages C. O. D. do so with fractional parts of one cent in the charge. The post office department has advised all postmasters that in such cases the charges are accordingly.

to be raised to an integral figure next highest to the fraction, and the lists and receipts changed accordingly. Thus if the charge on a package is marked $2.61 1/2, the carrier who delivers the package will collect $2.62 and change lists and papers accordingly.

HEADS OF SANATORIA HOLD 2-DAY INSTITUTE

Miss E. L. Boyla, matron of the Riverview sanatorium, is planning to attend the two day institute of superintendents and nurses of tuberculosis sanatoria to be held in Milwaukee on May 4 and 5. Probably one of the physicians at the sanatorium also will attend, but it has not yet been decided which it will be. The institute will be the first of its kind ever held in the state and will be conducted by the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis association.

Problems that determine the success or failure of a sanatorium will be discussed at the institute, which is an outgrowth of the annual conferences. These have come to be so largely attended and so taken up with more general questions that no time was left over for the consideration of smaller problems. Topics to be discussed will range from scrubbing floors to beautifying the grounds.

STAGE And SCREEN

EXTRA SHARE OF COMEDY IN "CHEAPER TO MARRY"

While the leading comedy roles in "Cheaper to Marry" which is showing at the Elite for the last time tonight, are handled by Louise Fazenda and Claude Gillingwater, three other well-known comic folk of the screen will be seen in this Robert Z. Leonard production. Opportunity to insert some humorous situations was presented to Mr. Leonard while he was directing the scenes in an exclusive Women's Athletic club.

Hank Mann, Mathilde Comont and Louise Carter were engaged to handle the fun making roles, and the results were exceptionally good. The leading players in the cast are Lewis S. Stone, Conrad Nagel, Marguerite De La Motte, Paulette Duval and Richard Wayne.

Laura La Plante and Eugene O'Brien are co-starring in "Dangerous Innocence," the Universal Jewel production to be shown in the Elite theater, Saturday and Sunday. "Dangerous Innocence" is from the story, "Ann's An Idiot," by Pamela Wyne.

It is a fascinating story of a young girl's first love affair with an unusual feature in that her mother is her rival. Jean Horska, Martha Mattox and other favorites support under William A. Seltzer's direction.

MADAME SANS GENE

The first motion picture ever to play on Broadway at five dollars a seat—that's the reputation "Madame Sans Gene," hailed as Gloria Swanson's masterpiece, made for itself at its opening performance in New York. Moreover, the theatre was packed to the rafters for the occasion, with hundreds of unsuccessful applicants for seats and a crowd of several thousands giving the police a tussle outside the theatre in their efforts to get into the place and also to catch a glimpse of Miss Swanson and her French nobleman-husband, the Marquis de la Falaise de la Courdray.

Manager Lutz has booked "Madame Sans Gene" at the Appleton Theatre for next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

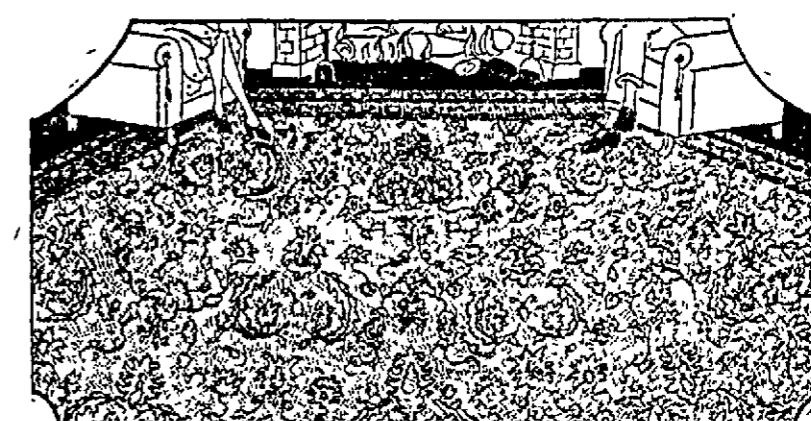

Even for Gloria Swanson, whose screen efforts are always acted in elaborate settings and gowns, "Madame Sans Gene" is an unusually luxurious production. It was filmed in France, and the backgrounds include the palaces at Versailles, Fontainebleau and Compiègne, spots hitherto forbidden motion picture directors. Gloria is seen sleeping in the actual golden bed of Marie Antoinette.

Familiar figures of the old West live again in this photoplay. But the big climax comes in the shape of a monster battle between the forces of General Houston and those headed by his deadly foe, Sidney Stokes, the spectator feels that he has reason to admire Texas as he never did before.

Indians, plantation negroes, backwoodsman and mountaineers, Mexican soldiers, trappers, guides U. S. cavalrymen, Texas Rangers, convent sisters and townspeople all are important in this swift moving drama.

A. A. L. BRANCHES JOIN WITH STATE FEDERATION

Branch No. 12, Aid Association for Lutherans, voted at its meeting at Hortonville Wednesday evening to join the Wisconsin federation of the association. Two delegates, William Dietrich and William Debbert, were elected to attend the annual convention at Oshkosh June 13.

G. D. Ziegler, national president, and Louis Freude, state federation secretary, both of Appleton, attended the meeting and explained what state affiliation meant. The members then took a vote, which resulted in favor of joining.

Ellington branch of the aid association also voted at a recent meeting to join the state federation. Mr. Freude spoke at that time concerning the move. Two delegates, H. A. Lippert and Elmer Schroeder, were elected to go to Oshkosh.

Both branches endorsed nomination of Albert Vecas of Appleton, a trustee, and Alex O. Benitz, Fond du Lac, as director of the national association.

Railroad Posters Preach
Sombre Lesson Of Caution

"Think, Driver, Think!"

That is the message which will confront the motorist from every railroad crossing post, as soon as the new cards in the "Cross Crossings Caution" campaign, just received by local railroads, are erected.

In contrast to other posters of the series, this year's card shows the result of negligence, rather than its imminence. Piled alongside the base of a railroad crossing sign is the smoking and tangled wreckage of an automobile, while a train is stopped nearby, with horror-stricken passengers and trainmen hurrying to rescue the victims of the driver who did not think. In the center of the road, a man is seen, feebly trying to lift himself from the ground. While the colors of this year's posters are not as vivid as those of previous years, it gains force by its very somberness.

The slogan, "Cross Crossings Caution," is carried on a banner at the base of the picture, and below it, in letters which unfortunately are too small to be read from any distance, is the terse sentence, "2,135 killed and 6,782 injured in 1924."

These posters, furnished by the American Railway Association, have been issued for the last three years, being placed at railroad crossings, in stations, garages, hotels and elsewhere where they will be seen by the travelling public.

County Directory

County board proceedings have been published in book form and can be secured at the office of John E. Hantusch, county clerk, at the court house.

A pamphlet containing names of county officers, village, town and city officers, will be ready for distribution by the latter part of next week.

Auto Fuel Prices in Wisconsin Too High, Attorney General Says

Madison—The gasoline business in Wisconsin will be put on a sort of probation under the price of publicity order which becomes effective next Monday, Attorney General Horace L. Ekern indicated in a statement.

Fair prices for Wisconsin consumers are demanded and the order "is only a step in dealing with the problem," the statement said opportunity being given the business "to consider the public interests along with its own."

Price reductions in Chicago and in South Dakota were cited as emphasizing

"that the present retail price of gasoline is too high."

Any state in Wisconsin has the power to sell gas to the public, such as has been delegated in South Dakota to the state highway commission, the attorney general declared.

"Wisconsin is making a test of how far the gasoline business can be trusted to regulate itself where the state has no control," he said.

CAPITAL WAITS
FOR REOPENING OF SCOTT CASE

Washington Eager for More
"Inside Information" on High Life

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
Washington—Washington isn't exactly a vicious city. That is to say, it isn't tough, in the sense that Chicago is tough. It isn't hard and cruel like New York. It isn't desperate and dangerous like San Francisco. Outside the prohibition enforcement, service the thug doesn't flourish here. And yet it can't be said that Washington is good.

It undoubtedly is the most irresponsible city in the country. Not that it means anything very wrong. It simply doesn't care. Nearly everybody here is away from home, with little or nothing to do, and interested almost exclusively in having a good time. These are ideal conditions for Satan's purposes and he makes the most of them.

What's become of the Scott divorce case, at Alpena, Mich.? The testimony in the case told the story of life in Washington with beautiful accuracy. Not everybody's life, of course. But it was very characteristic of the "smart set," which, in proportion to Washington's population, is about ten times the size of any other American city's "smart set."

There isn't much depth to its moral turpitude—just the whole outfit bent on fun and excitement, and the devil take the consequences! This isn't assuming that Congressman Scott did all the things his wife, said he did, or that his complaints of Mrs. Scott necessarily were well founded. Only both versions did sound so like Washington.

But anyway, what's become of the Scott case? Washington was enjoying it immensely; when they finished the first reel and is mighty anxious to see the second one start. What Washington's afraid of is that there won't be any second one.

However, that statement that Washington was enjoying it needs to be qualified a little. Not quite all Washington. The Washingtonians whose names were mentioned didn't like it a bit. And when Mrs. Scott announced she wasn't half through, the probabilities are that quite a few more had cold shivers.

At any rate it's been guessed, again and again, that a lot of pressure would be brought to have the rest of the performance censored.

The surprise now is that it will be postponed and postponed and postponed on into eternity, which will be extremely disappointing to all Washingtonians except those who were afraid they were going to be side-swiped by it.

Vice President Dawes seems to be making a hit with his demand for a new set of Senate-rules, to hurry up business. At all events, he gets plenty of applause when he discusses the question in after-dinner speeches. But that isn't the same thing as inducing the senators to change their own rules.

What the vice president forgets, yes is that he's speaking for the present Washington administration, which naturally wants rules that will enable it to get favorable action on its policies, but that the administration lacks a Senate majority.

The Republicans have a majority.

yes if everybody counts as a Republican who calls himself one, but the administration, no—it's half a dozen short of a majority. The very fact that the administration wants the rules changed is a sufficient reason why this Senate won't change them. Neither will the next Senate, if there's anything in political prophecy.

Offer $100 If City Raises
Other $1,900 For Monument

"If the people of Appleton contribute $1,900 to the monument at Riverside cemetery for the Grand Army of the Republic, I will give the remaining $100."

That is the challenge to a public which has shamefully neglected the campaign which is sponsored by Oney Johnston post of the American Legion to raise $2,000 for the granite shaft which is to be unveiled Memorial day at the G. A. R. burial plot. A leading business man of the city visited the Post-Crescent office Thursday to make that offer and Charles A. Green, chairman of the campaign, passes the challenge on to the public.

Contributions now amount to about $825. The campaign has been going for ten days and the entire sum should have been given by this time if the patriotism of the people had been as glowing as that of other times when a call is made to assist with worthy projects. What answer are you going to give the handful of remaining veterans of the Civil war when this campaign ends May 6? Will you be one of the selfish, indifferent ones who will let these men go to their reward within the next few years chagrined because their pet hobby was not fulfilled?

In war days those who refused to give what could be called slackers because it was a reflection on their loyalty to country and flag could be attitude be any less among more than 20,000 who have not given now to a project that will mean much to the patriotism of the future? Give, even if it hurts to do so, for the joy the gift will bring to the aged veterans will be worth many times the few dollars it takes out of your plenty.

THE SPIRIT OF SPRING SET TO MUSIC

New Victor and Brunswick Records Just Out

19606 "Humoresk" — Shimmy Fox Trot
75c "Charleston Chuckles" — Shimmy Fox Trot

Zez Confrey and His Orchestra

The nimble-fingered Zez is back on the job with two red-hot fox trots, in which he, of course, figures at the piano. "Humoresk" is described as a satire on Dvorak's "Humoreske", which it rags cleverly. "Charleston Chuckles" adapts itself admirably to the "Charleston" of the stage clogger as well as to the ballroom dances. Vocal chuckles are introduced.

2854 "Swanee Butterfly"

75c "River Boat Shuffle" Isham Jones' Orchestra
Both excellent fox trots played by Isham Jones. When Jones played "River Boat Shuffle" on the opening night of the Cafe Rue De La Paix in New York, dance enthusiasts started a new dance which will be known as the "River Boat Shuffle". When dancers to this you know that the selection must be most unusual.

19630 "Let it Rain, Let it Pour" — Fox Trot

75c "All Aboard for Heaven" — Fox Trot
Meyer Davis' Le Paradis Band
Fox trots in lively and urgent style by this famous organization. Both numbers have plenty of color, and they are brilliant in quality. "Let it Rain, Let it Pour" is not to be confused with the other fox trot, "Let it Rain," which is listed just above. Vocal refrains are introduced into the record. The strings and the celesta are used with excellent taste, and "All Aboard for Heaven" begins with a warning train-whistle.

The softball baseball season will be opened officially in Appleton on Tuesday when the Rotary and Lions clubs meet at 5 o'clock in the afternoon in the first game of the new Lark League. All games will be played at Jones park at 5 p.m. The Lark League was organized last year by the Lions Advertising Club, Rotary and Kiwanis and took its name from the first three letters of the teams. This year the strong American Legion team, which will include some of the best players of 1924 teams in both the Lark and Twilight Leagues, will replace the Admen. All of the teams have been strengthened since last year and a close race is expected. Games will be played on Tuesday and Thursday. The complete schedule follows:

GRANGE BASEBALL TEAM ORGANIZED

Greenville, 1924 County
Leaguers, Play First Game
at Oshkosh Sunday

The South Greenville Grange baseball team, one of the leading squads in the county for the last two years, has been reorganized for the 1925 season and will play its first game Sunday against the Waite Grass Rug Co. of Oshkosh. The game will be played at the Standard city.

The squad is practically the same which kept the Grange boys in the running for the county title since its organization. Nixon, one of the best amateur pitchers of this vicinity, again will occupy the mound, with his old battery mate, Kautson, behind the log. He turned in several two and three hit games against strong opposition last year, winning most of his starts, and should go even better this year. Emmet Woods, former Appleton State League first sacker, will hold down the initial hossack. The complete lineup follows:

BROWNS COME CLOSE TO MARK FOR ERRORS

The St. Louis Browns came close to equaling the American League record for making errors in a single game when they pulled 10 miscues in the season's opener with Cleveland. The present high mark is held by the White Sox in a game played with Detroit on May 6, 1923. They chalked up an even dozen errors that afternoon.

OLD STATE LOOP HURLERS GO GOOD

Harry Rusch and Eddie Stack Start Season With Bang in Fast Company

That State League baseball fans were treated to some of the best hurling in the west last year is being proved daily by the way in which old State League pitchers are coming through this year against much stronger competition. Several of the 1924 mound artists of the valley have turned in fast-class games in their first attempt of the year.

Harry Rusch, 1924 manager of the Menasha-Neenah Pals, pitching for the Kellogg's of Battle Creek, Mich., lost a hard 1 to 0 game to the crack Chicago Blues. Rusch pitched the Menasha team to a state title last year and finished with the Kellogg's who won the city title in 1924 and the Michigan state title in 1923. In 1923 they held the White Sox to a 7 to 7 extra-inning tie.

Eddie Stack, local mound artist for part of the 1924 season, pitching for Rogers Park, lost a 3 to 2 decision to the Famous American Giants, crack Chicago colored team in a ten inning battle. He allowed only five hits and lost the game on his own error.

VERN BLACKBURN TO
HURL FOR BLOOMINGTON

Vern Blackburn of Lancaster, has been signed to pitch for the crack Bloomington club of the Three-Eye League for the 1925 season, according to letters received by friends in this city. Blackburn is a brother of Lyle "Liz" Blackburn, Lawrence college freshman coach and former Blue football and wrestling star. He has been pitching professional ball for the last few years and has hung up quite a record in that time. In 1920 he received a tryout with the Chicago White Sox and last year he was slated to hurl for the Appleton State Leaguers but negotiations fell through and he went to Merrill instead. His record at Merrill got him several good offers this year and he returned to or- ganized ball.

London—Bombardier Wells former British heavyweight champion, was knocked out in the third round by Jack Stanley.

BILL TILDEN'S TENNIS TITLE LOOKS SAFE

BY ART CARLSON
How long will Bill Tilden rule the tennis throne?

That's a question that has been popped every spring for the last few years. It's a tough query, however. It beggars a reply.

For "Big Bill" appears to be the same old fellow; the same raucous wielder who has romped through the tennis field in a more or less reckless manner since 1920.

At least the lanky Quaker's work down south during the winter months would lead one to believe that he is as good as ever. And when Bill's in tip-top form he is well nigh invincible.

Tilden, like old wine, seems to improve as the years roll by. Time doesn't appear to slow him up or deprecate his game to any outstanding extent. Season after season he continues his same old bombardment, in the same old way.

Tilden and tennis—the two are synonymous. Mention of the player recalls the pastime. And vice versa.

Tilden first sprang into the sportive glare in 1918. He finished runner-up to R. Lindley Murray that season. The following campaign found him second to Bill Johnston, the champion.

In 1920 Tilden reached the dizzy heights of beating Johnston in the final round. And every season since has defended his much cherished crown successfully. And, oddly enough, each time against Johnston.

Tilden has held the top rung for a longer period than any champion since the days of W. A. Larned, who skipped along from 1907 to 1911, inclusive without relinquishing his laurels. That's driving back quite a spell.

A couple of years ago the wise ones were ringing the final gong for Tilden. He had just undergone an operation on one of the digits of his racquet hand. They claimed it would prove too big a handicap for him to overcome, too great for even a Tilden. His star was due to fade, they opined.

But the gawky Philadelphian gave their "expert" opinions the well known rout. For he stepped back on the courts with his same old brand of stuff. At least it has thus far been plenty good enough to crush all opponents.

The tennis world has never flashed a chap who could compare with Tilden, all things considered. True, Wilding and Brooks were players of the highest magnitude—the two greatest Australia ever turned out. And a pair of the best in the game's history for that matter. "Red" McLaughlin, the "California Comet" was another. His star was due to fade, they opined.

Throughout the United States navy there is a just and glowing pride of the achievements of the naval academy's wonderful team of boxers. This is based not only on the first achievement of the lads who have represented the navy, but upon their unbroken record of good ethics and high sportsmanship.

During six seasons, the whole period in which the midshipmen have engaged in this sort of competition with the representatives of other colleges, they never have lost a meet, and they have consistently sought the strongest opponents.

The midshipmen boxers now have capped this splendid record of victories in dual meets by an overwhelming triumph in the finals of the Intercollegiate Boxing Association recently held at Philadelphia.

In this tournament, the naval academy has the presumption to challenge the august faculty and the fraternity boxers take up golf, knickers and everything! The old folks can send the boy to college for a "liberal education" now.

The Mid-West relay carnival staged at Madison on Saturday under the auspices of the U. S. Naval Academy has prospects of a high caliber baseball team. The men have been practicing since the middle of April, and new prospects that have been uncovered may offer competition to some of the regulars.

The team's greatest weakness seems to be the lack of adequate pitching. A Fisher of Flint, Mich., first string pitcher of last year, is back again and seems to be holding his own, but Coach P. G. Eickmann lacks good substitutes should anything happen to Fisher.

A. Niemann, regular catcher last year and this season's captain, is expected to lead the team in hitting again this year, with Fisher running him a close second. V. Voecks of Appleton, who played second on the team last year has been shifted to first and seems to be working out well at that sack. He is also well up in the hitting list.

Last year's third baseman, W. W. Zitzmann of Stillwater, Minn., is working out at second and the infield is further strengthened by M. Zilz, Wausau, speedy shortstop of the 1924 team. Other old men back are E. Baier, Bay City, Mich., and J. Wahl, Alting, Minn., both outfielders.

R. Clandon Sheboygan one of the new men, is being worked at third base, and has shown prowess both in fielding and hitting. Other new men include F. Roloff, New London, fast outfielder and substitute catcher; C. Nehrung, Oconomowoc, outfield and utility infielder, and W. Gieschen, Waukesha, outfield.

About 30 men are out for the team under the direction of Coach Eickmann.

HOSPITAL NOTE: The appetite of the New York Yankee team is steadily improving. This morning he devoured one ham and 14 eggs.

The Harvard football eleven has ended spring football work without a single defeat and that's something to cheer about at Cambridge.

THE WRESTLING GAME HAS MADE BIG MUNN SICK....THIS PROVES THAT BIG MUNN IS NO DIFFERENT FROM THE REST OF US.

Everyone who turns out to see the Fall Fair game Saturday will surely see an awful. The championship match of this 1922-24 State League against the pick of the old Midwest League, Sylvester, pitted against Hellberger once more for outright shooting honors, the same as in 1922 and 1923. Friday and Saturday of last year the two teams met in a real ball game.

The crowd should surpass any that attended the Menasha-Neenah games last year with Appleton and Oshkosh going down in swarms.

FONDY HIGHS START
BALL SEASON SATURDAY

Fond du Lac—Coach E. D. Fruth and his Fond du Lac baseball players will open the season Saturday afternoon at Reuping park when they battle the Omro Highs. Omro has a team every year and has some strong veteran talent back from last season. Fondy will have to do their best if they hope to trim Omro.

MELLOR LOST 3 POUNDS

MACKS, SENATORS IN BIG STRUGGLE FOR FIRST PLACE

Athletics Can Get Undisputed Leadership for First Time by Win Over Bucks

New York—After a day of complete idleness throughout both major league circuits, teams prepared to resume the pennant chase Friday with interest centered on the first place fight in the American League between the Senators and Athletics at Washington.

With only a half game separating the clubs, Mack's hard hitting warriors, idle for three days, Friday will be able to vault into undisputed possession of first place for the first time in years, through a victory over the champions. By winning the remaining games of the series the Philadelphia club would be able to return north for another whirl against the Yankees with a fairly tight grip on the lofty perch.

The Athletics, one of the big disappointments of last year, Friday show signs of responding to the long labor of Connie Mack to produce a Philadelphia winner.

This year the team has already had a taste of partial leadership, having shared the peak for a brief spell with the Senators, but Friday they get the big chance of making the pace alone.

Cleveland will try to profit by the expense of the Tigers while St. Louis' will oppose Chicago and the Yanks will endeavor to emerge from their slump at Boston.

Teams at the head of the National League stand no doubt on serious opposition today. The Giants will be met at that city and on June 7, the Kell Loggers, Michigan state champs, with Harry Rusch, former Menasha star on the mound, will play here on a trip through the west.

The lineups for Saturday are: Menasha—Wurth or Cissa, second base; Leopold, first base; Zeinhardt, third base; Corey, left field; Johnson.

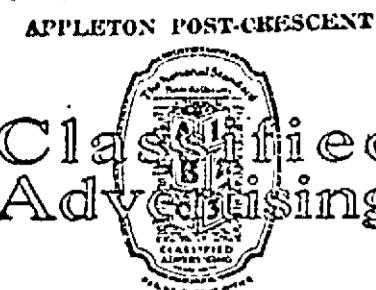

Al Gould, Star Simmons

Hurler In 1924, Arrives
In Menasha For Opener

Menasha-Neenah Lineup
Completed as Pitcher Reports to Manager Pierce

With the arrival of Al Gould, a good Cleveland Indian hurler, the staff of the Menasha-Neenah Pals was completed on Thursday. McPhee will return from a trip on Saturday morning. Gould is a little fellow but has often demonstrated his ability to stand work. While pitching for the Salt Lake City team of the Pacific Coast League in 1923 he took part in 59 games, a large number for any pitcher. Last year he pitched good ball for the Simmons team through a hard Midwest schedule.

BUMPER TOURIST
CROP PREDICTED
FOR THIS YEAR

More Than 800,000 Foreign Cars Were in Wisconsin in 1924

Indications are that Wisconsin's 1925 tourist crop will be a bumper one. Warm, early spring days have already sprouted it and in some southern parts of the state the crop is up and well greened.

Amounting to more than $50,000,000 during the season of 1924, the money spent by these visitors is by no means unwelcome to Badger farmers and business men. It is estimated that this sum of money amounts to seven times the value of the state's entire potato crop, and more than one-third of the total value of milk products.

SPENT $321 A DAY

Counts taken at 100 points during the last season showed that more than 800,000 foreign cars came into the state. Each car traveled an average of 615 miles the state, averaged 32 persons to a car and each person spent $32.1 a day. It was determined that each car spent 10.5 days in the state.

In traffic count on trunk highways, 2038 cars a day passed the point where the count was recorded. As compared with a similar count of 600 cars taken in 1919, it is reasonable to expect that as long as Wisconsin people appreciate the tourist trade, it will increase.

Why do these tourists come to Wisconsin instead of Illinois, Nebraska and neighboring states?" asks John S. Donald, former secretary of state. "The answer is our timber, our lakes, rivers, beautiful land scenes and good roads."

WOULD BEAUTIFY ROADS

Mr. Donald is insisting that Wisconsin people do all in their power to keep the highways beautiful. He points to the fact that Canada has recently secured 2,500,000 maple trees for her farmers to plant along the roadsides, and wonders why Wisconsin can't do the same before it is too late.

To further attract tourists he would prevent erosion, clean away rubbish and junk piles and drain all stagnant pools of water along the roadside.

GRAY BUS LINE IS ORDERED TO QUIT

Fails to Obtain License and Doesn't Carry Bond, State
Says

Royal J. Gray, operator of a motor bus line between Appleton and Kaukauna, who recently came here from Minnesota, has been ordered by J. A. Lonsdorf, district attorney, and George T. Prim, chief of police, to discontinue operating his buses until he has obtained a Wisconsin license. Inspection by Glen Woodworth of the automobile division of the state department, disclosed that Gray was operating without a Wisconsin license, and without bonds or insurance protection for his passengers.

The Wisconsin statutes permit an operator from another state to run busses for ten days without a license after he has made application. But the state railway commission has ruled that no bus can run without a bond. The statutes do not permit running a vehicle without a license, and consequently Gray can not operate his bus line legally.

VALLEY SCOUT COUNCIL WILL APPROVE TROOPS

Applications for troop charters by two new troops will be made to the executive committee of Valley council, Boy Scouts of America, at the monthly meeting at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening at the headquarters here. The troops are in Holy Name school, Kimberly, and St. Mary church, Menasha.

Summer camp inspection also will be continued and P. O. Keicher, executive of valley council, will outline a plan for organizing scouts in the various cities.

Why They Parted

"I was down with pain in my right side which at times almost crazed me. Most all of the doctors said operation. But what I want to tell you is the pain disappeared with the first dose of your medicine and I never saw any since. May's Wonderful Remedy has the right name—sas, sour stomach and dyspepsia have left too." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and relieves the inflammation which causes gastrically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Adv.

PIRATES SLAY
WOLF RIVER

Reports of the destruction of 12 smalldines set for sturgeon in the Wolf river recently, recall to the minds of pioneer residents here the days when these mighty fish were hauled from the Fox river in wagon loads to be used as fertilizer. Some of the older residents here recall when the sturgeon was one of the most plentiful of edible freshwater fish in this district, but now it has disappeared almost entirely from all waters except those of Lake Winnebago and the Wolf river.

For a number of years the sturgeon has been protected during all seasons of the year in Wisconsin, but "sturgeon pirates" defy the law whenever they can do so with some degree of safety by stretching their smalldines near the bottoms of streams during the spawning season. The lines are anchored with heavy chunks of lead and strung with scores of large needlepointed hooks. Often other fish besides sturgeon are caught and frequently they entangle themselves in so many hooks that they are practically useless as food when removed.

RURAL SCHOOL ATHLETES
HOLD TOWN CONTESTS

Practically every county rural school is preparing for the town athletic meets which must be held before May 16 in order to have the names of the winners in the hands of A. G. Meating, county superintendent of schools, as soon as possible.

The winners enter the county track and field meet in Appleton on May 29. Notices received by Mr. Meating Monday indicate that two of the schools, Deer Creek and Liberty will hold their twin meets on Friday. Hortonia will hold its town meet on May 12.
